Parent Expectations & Code of Conduct

As a parent of an athlete at Madison Inferno Volleyball Club I am expected to conduct myself in a positive manner that demonstrates high integrity and a respect for others at all times. It is essential that I support all the athletes, coaches, Club employees, officials, other parents/spectators, and opposing teams.

I am representing Madison Inferno Volleyball Club. Their standards are extremely high. I am expected to maintain those extremely high standards. I agree to abide by the below conduct by reading it carefully and signing at the end.

I agree to the following Parent Expectations and Code of Conduct:

- I understand that respect, honesty and high integrity are all required at all club events.
- I will respect all the athletes and coaches, and support them at all times.
- I will respect all officials, opposing athletes and coaches, and other spectators.
- I will follow and abide by the USAV/Badger Region Volleyball spectator/parent code of conduct.
- I will follow and abide by all rules as stated in USA Volleyball Safe Sport code of conduct.
- I will only use appropriate language. Swearing is never acceptable.
- I will let the coaches do the coaching. I will do the parenting.
- I will abide by, and accept gracefully, the decisions of officials. I understand that they have a tough job and are doing it to the best of their abilities.
- I will demonstrate appreciation for and applaud good play and never make derogatory remarks about officials, coaches or the athletes of any team.
- I will adhere to a professional dress code appropriate to the event.
- I will not use alcohol, marijuana or illegal drugs at any club sponsored event.
- I will not smoke cigarettes or e-cigarettes. I understand that Madison Inferno Volleyball Club is a smoke-free environment.
- I realize that when wearing Club clothing, I am a representative of Madison Inferno Volleyball. I will maintain their high standard of excellence at all times.
